

NATPE: Comedy Reality Show Renewed Through 2018

Jan 17, 2017

With the NATPE conference getting under way this week in Miami, distributor PPI Releasing announced Monday that the syndicated series "Just for Laughs: Gags" was renewed for two more seasons.

"The Canadian import, which runs both as a Monday-Friday strip and as a weekend stack, has been renewed by Tribune Broadcasting and other station groups through 2018," B&C reports.

The show has been running in syndication since 2015, and had a three-season run on ABC prime time. The "Candid Camera"-style reality show features the Canadian comedy troupe Just for Laughs.

The program has a spin-off show, "Just Kidding," on Disney XD.

