NATPE: 'Just For Laughs: Gags' Renewed Through 2018-19

PPI Releasing's Canadian comedy import to continue running as strip and weekend stack

By Paige Albinia

Syndicated series Just for Laughs: Gags has been renewed for two more seasons, distributor PPI Releasing said Monday on the eve of NATPE in Miami. The Canadian import, which runs both as a Monday-Friday strip and as a weekend stack, has been renewed by Tribune Broadcasting and other station groups. PPI has announced the series will continue through 2018-19. Just For Laughs: Gags has been airing in syndication since 2015. It also aired on ABC's primetime for three seasons, has a spin-off show, Just Kidding, on Disney XD, and a YouTube channel.

The show features Canadian comedy troupe, Just For Laughs, in a Candid Camera-style reality series.

PPI Releasing offers Just For Laughs: Gags on an all-barter basis.
